Venice, January 24. N. S.

SIGNIOR Capello, who is at preſent Reſident from this Republick to the Griſons, is to be ſent in the ſame Quality to Muſcovy to Negotiate a Treaty of Commerce between his Czariſh Majeſty and this State. A French Privateer has lately taken the Judith, a Venetian Ship, in her way home from the Levant, valued at One hundred thouſand Ducats: It is not yet known on what Pretence the Privateer has committed this Act of Hoſtility. Our Letters from Dalmatia aſſure us, that thoſe Parts are at preſent perfectly free of the Plague. They write from Naples, that the Viceroy is haſtning the Departure of three Regiments that had ſome time ſince received Orders to be in a readineſs to March towards the Milaneſe, from whence they will be ſent into Spain; and ſome Ships are appointed to take in Stores of Corn that have been provided for that purpoſe in Apulia, and carry it to Barcelona. They write from Rome, that the Prince d'Avelino, his Catholick Majeſty's Ambaſſador, is preparing for his publick Entry. The Pope having appointed Signior Borromeo to be his Nuncio at Barcelona, has conferr'd on him the Title of Patriarch of Antioch. An Earthquake has been felt in the Marquiſate of Ancona, and the Dutchy of Urbine, but we do not hear that it has done any Damage. Our Letters from Genoa of the 17th Inſtant adviſe, that a free Trade having been ſettled between the Port and the Subjects of that State, Signior Angelo Maria has been thereupon appointed by the Senate to reſide in the Quality of their Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople.

Hamburg, February 3. N. S. The Agreement between the Houſes of Denmark and Holſtein, in relation to the Diſputes upon the Treaty of Travendahl, having been ſign'd ſome time ago, was immediately ſent to the ſeveral Courts to be Ratified; and the Commiſſioners on both ſides repair'd to Kiel, being the Place appointed for the Exchange of the Ratifications: And accordingly Monſieur Haguedorn, the Daniſh Reſident, having receiv'd his Maſter's Ratification, exchang'd it with that of the Biſhop and Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, the 24th of the laſt Month. Since that, Monſieur the Baron de Goertz, firſt Privy-Councellor of the Houſe of Gottorp, brought the Ratification of that Treaty, which is called the Collateral Treaty of Travendahl, and communicated it to the Miniſters of the Guarantees, who were aſſembled for that purpoſe on the 30th, at the Houſe of the Reſident of the States-General. At the ſame time the Baron de Goertz made a very handſom Compliment to thoſe Miniſters in the Name of his Maſter, and thank'd them for their Pains and Application in bringing theſe Differences to ſo happy a Concluſion; to which ſuitable Returns were made on their Parts; and every one acknowledges with Satisfaction, that the great Zeal and Aſſiſtance of her Britannick Majeſty's Envoy, Mr. Wich, together with the Miniſters of the other Powers concern'd in the Guaranty, have extremely contributed to the Succeſs of this Affair, which we hope will ſettle a firm Tranquility and Harmony between the two Houſes. We wiſh that the Negotiation concerning the Diſputes in this Town might ſoon have the ſame happy End; but ſo many Incidents interfere to prolong our Misfortunes, that we cannot yet be certain in our hopes on that Point. We have had here for ſome time from Vienna the Confirmation of the Sentence againſt Dr. Crumbholtz, who was one of the chief Fomenters of our unfortunate Diviſions; he is Condemn'd by it to a perpetual Impriſonment, but as the Princes in this Neighbourhood decline to admit him into any of their Caſtles, it has not yet been put in Execution. The Duke of Mecklenburg is at preſent here with his Court; and we have likewiſe Deputies from the Nobility of that Dukedom, who are come to lay the Grievances they complain of before the Imperial Commiſſion, which has been appointed to examine and adjuſt thoſe Matters. This Commiſſion was open'd on Wedneſday the 28th of the laſt Month, and Count Schonborn, who is Commiſſioner in this Affair on the Part of the Emperor, is much taken up in this Cauſe; which the Nobility of Mecklenburg ſeem inclinable to take out of his Hands, and transfer to the Court of Vienna.

Hague, February 6. N. S. The Earl of Peterborough having finiſh'd his Negotiations here, ſet out on Tueſday Night laſt towards Vienna, whither he intends to make all the haſte poſſible; ſince Monſieur de Mellarede, the Duke of Savoy's Miniſter, has been ſome time at that Court. Frequent Conferences are held here, both upon the Meaſures for ſupporting with Vigour the War in Spain, and alſo upon the preſent Situation of Affairs in the North, in regard to the Neutrality of the Empire, and the March of the Troops appointed to maintain it; but the Reſolutions on theſe important Points are not yet known. The Baron de Schmettau, Envoy-Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Pruſſia to the States-General, died here yeſterday Morning, having been ſeized the Day before with a Fit of an Apoplexy. He is much regretted by all who know him, for his great Merit and Abilities. He had reſided here as Miniſter from the Pruſſian Court for theſe nineteen Years, and had been frequently employ'd in Negotiations of great Importance. The common News-Letters from Paris will
